Teaching Modern Israel:
A One-Day Professional Development Workshop for Pre-Collegiate Teachers

Sample Schedule A

8:15 - 8:30 am	Registration Registration and coffee, light breakfast
8:30 - 8:40 am	Introduction Introduction of day, materials, and where are we going
8:40 - 9:35 am	Constructing Enduring Understandings about Israel Why Should We Teach about Israel? (Ken Stein and Tal Grinfas-David)
9:35 - 10:25 am	Content Themes in the History of Modern Israel (Ken Stein)
10:25 - 10:30 am	Break
10:30 - 11:30 am	Application Using Portfolios to Support Learning Through Various Disciplines (Tal Grinfas-David)
11:30 - 11:55 pm	Lunch
11:55 am - 1:00 pm	Content Lessons from the history of the Yishuv: How did the Zionists do it? (Ken Stein)
1:15 - 1:25 pm	Break
1:25 - 2:10 pm	Content: Concurrent Sessions (choose one) Session A: Music as a Reflection of Israeli History, Politics and Culture (Tal Grinfas-David) Session B: The U.S., Israel, and the Middle East (Ken Stein)
2:10 - 3:05 pm	Application: Inviting Israel into Our Classrooms The P.O.W.E.R. to Create a Spiral Curriculum for Your Learning Environment (Tal Grinfas-David)
3:05 - 3:30 pm	Conclusion Productivity Assessment and Reflection: Affecting Change in Our Classrooms and in Our Schools (Tal Grinfas-David)